Hello Sorors,

Happy new sorority year! I'm so excited to invite you to Honolulu, Hawaii for the Pacific Region Executive Board meeting. As always, the Pacific Region is leading the way! We will be supporting our sisters in the beautiful Aloha state as they convene their state leadership conference. And, we have also invited our brothers of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., under the leadership of Western Region Director, Bro. Mark Armstrong, join us in Hawaii!

The State of Hawaii is unique as there is currently one chapter, Xi Psi Zeta, which is on the island of Oahu and has been part of our region since 1990. The Sorors of the Hawaii, affectionately known as the Aloha Zetas, led by their State Director Soror Keva Brown, have planned a great time for us in Hawaii, so please start making your plans to attend. The State of Hawaii, the Pacific Region sorors and our Western Region brothers are coming together in Hawaii, it's a family affair!

While the Executive Board meeting is for the executive board members, all sorors are welcome. Let's make an extra effort to get your chapter Basilei to attend. We are going to take care of the business of the region and plan for our road to Boulé.

See you in Hawaii!

Dearest Sorors,

It is my distinct honor and pleasure on behalf of your regional executive board, to invite you to our joint 2018 Pacific Region Executive Board Meeting and Hawaii State Leadership Conference! But wait, why stop there? Ever since her appointment as our Regional Director, Soror Natalie Brannon and your executive board set the goal of having a joint meeting with our brothers of the Western Region. That dream comes true in Hawaii! The men of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. will be joining us in holding their executive board meeting as well.

What an incredible opportunity for us to come together in Honolulu, Hawaii to strengthen our bond with our brothers and prepare our region for our Grand Boulé, in New Orleans, Louisiana this summer! These combined meetings promise to be a collaborative, enriching and memorable experience for all. Our host chapter, Xi Psi Zeta and the Hawaii State Director, Soror Keva R. Brown, have worked diligently to provide you with time to immerse yourself in the Polynesian culture while working and fellowshiping with our sorors in the “Aloha State.”

It is long overdue for us to come back to Hawaii. We are honored to have our International Grand Basileus, Soror Mary Breaux Wright and her family, join us for this momentous event. I am proud to serve alongside our Pacific Region Director, our State Directors, elected and appointed regional officers and you, as our “Phenomenal Pacific Region” blazes a new path to join with our sisters and brothers in the State of Hawaii. I look forward to greeting you in Honolulu!

In Sisterhood,

Aloha and on behalf of the Hawaii State Executive Board, I would like to invite you and our brothers of the Western Region to join us for the 2018 Hawaii State Leadership Conference Weekend. This year's conference will be held April 26-28, 2018 at the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel, in the heart of Waikiki Beach, Hawaii.

The theme of this year's conference is "Building (#Principles) Bonding (#Sisterhood) and Blazing (#SororsInService) – The Aloha Zeta Way", inspired by our 24th International Grand Basileus, Madam Mary Breaux Wright. The conference will present workshops to support chapter growth and success, internally and through service to the community. We will engage in meaningful learning experiences throughout the conference. We also look forward to showcasing our Sorors in Service, by acknowledging, appreciating and applauding them for their Selfless-Service to country and community.

The Hawaii State Executive Board and host chapter, Xi Psi Zeta, are working diligently to ensure that the 2018 Hawaii State Leadership Conference is informative and enjoyable for all. We look forward to seeing you in April in the beautiful Land of Rainbows of Honolulu, Hawaii to conduct business with the beautiful beaches of the Pacific as the backdrop.

Greetings Sisters and Brothers,

On behalf of our 35th International President, Micheal Cristal, I am thrilled to welcome each of you to the 2018 Joint Executive Board Meeting, being held here in the beautiful state of Hawaii, the "Aloha State"!

This is a monumental event as it will be the first time that the Executive Boards of the Phenomenal Pacific Region and the Mighty Western Region have convened in the same location at the same time. I am so excited to come together with my "Oh So Sweet" Soror and counterpart, Natalie Dillard Brannon to witness the emergence of our combined focus on leadership and growth in our respective regions!

I sincerely hope that the weekend will be a fantastic opportunity for us to come together and strengthen our bond even more as we handle the business of our respective organizations. I humbly offer my sincere and special thanks to the host chapters as they extend their hospitality in a way no other state/city can do. I sincerely appreciate the concerted efforts of the individuals with passion and commitment that have organized this meeting. I know it will be rewarding to all in attendance. HAWAII ETIQUETTE TIPS (excerpt Hawaii Aloha Travel guide):

1. Appreciate Lei: Lei have been used by Hawaiians since the early Polynesian settlers wore them, and chiefs would exchange them as symbols of peace between groups. So, they have deep cultural significance. If someone gives you a lei, etiquette dictates that you accept it and wear it as long as you're in the presence of the giver. If you don't know how to position the lei, here's what to do: Wear it around your neck, with the flowers hanging down in both the front and back

2. Respect Sacred Sites: You'll find that cultural sites are just about everywhere in Hawaii, whether it's a temple, rock wall with petroglyphs, or carvings created by ancient Hawaiians. It's crucial that you respect these sites by speaking and walking quietly in these areas. Always strive to leave the site the same as you found it, and don't leave trash behind. Extend your respect to the local wildlife and landscape; something as simple as picking a flower or rearranging some rocks to spell out your name can be interpreted as disrespectful.

3. Respect the Kupuna: Hawaiian people have great respect for their kupuna (elders), and you should make an effort to do so as well. Let older people go in front of you and hold doors open for them. If you're sitting down, and an elderly person shows up, consider offering him/her your seat. Showing deference will go a long way with the local population.

4. Know Aloha and Mahalo: If you learn only two Hawaiian words while you're here, make them "Aloha" and "Mahalo." "Aloha" has many meanings, but you'll probably use it to mean Hello and Good-bye. Mahalo means "thank you" and many locals appreciate when visitors say something polite, not to mention saying something polite in Hawaiian!

5. Honor Hula: Understand that hula is far more than just a dance to entertain tourists. It's an expression of local culture and tradition. If you find yourself in an environment where a hula is performed, don't be afraid to get up and join in on the fun. But, be sure not to "mock" the dance or dancers. Hula is a real, significant, and powerful art, and people here take it very seriously.

Diamond Head State Monument offers breathtaking views overlooking the Pacific Ocean and Honolulu. The trail takes you to the edge of a 300,000 year-old crater. While the hike isn't that long in terms of distance, it can be somewhat challenging due to its ascent. Parts of the trail are over uneven rock, and the 99 steps near the end of the hike are steep. Also, the only water fountains are at the beginning of the trail, so you'll want to bring a water bottle or bottled water to stay hydrated. While the gates to the park close at 6:00 PM, no one is permitted to hike after 4:30 PM, as the hike takes about 1.5-2 hours (round trip). Parking is limited and the park can get busy.
